

Task 169 ... Wallpaper Patterns ... Which is Which?

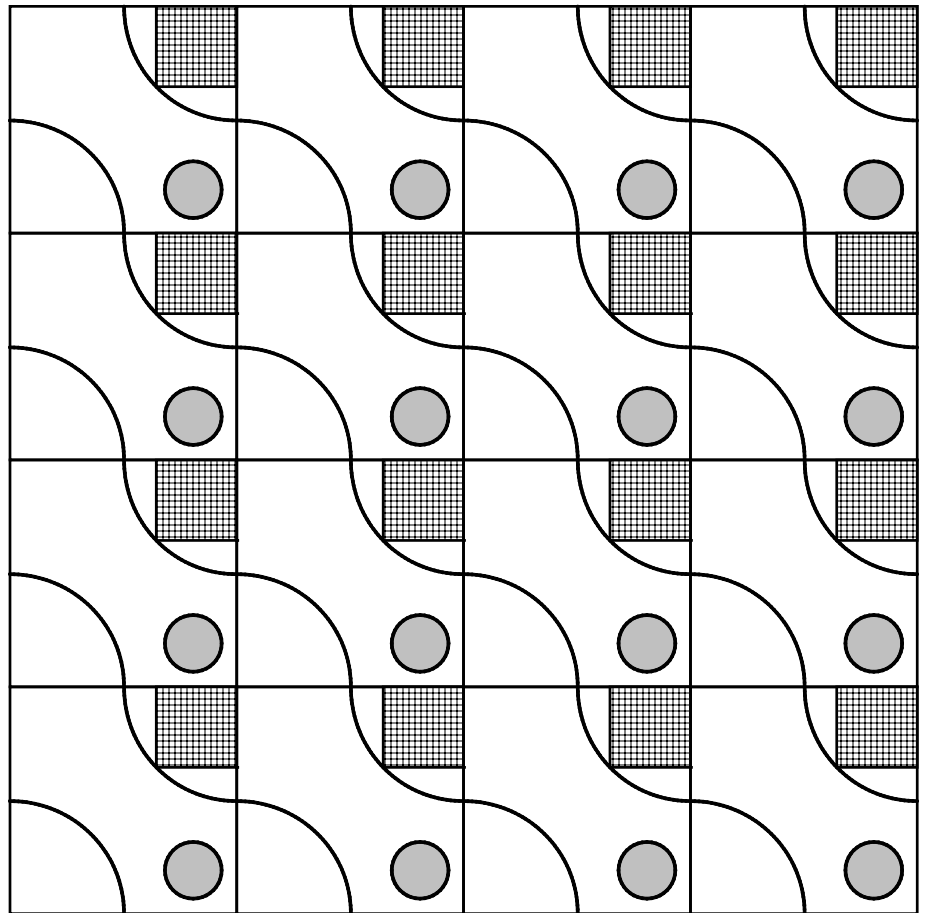

Try the task first, then use the tiles from the task to help you discover how these wallpaper patterns were created. Descriptions are provided on a separate sheet. Your challenge is to match patterns with descriptions.

Challenge A

Starting with this tile in the top left

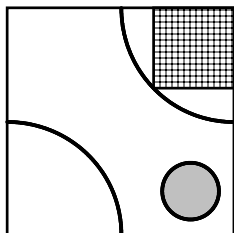

which description explains how the pattern was made.

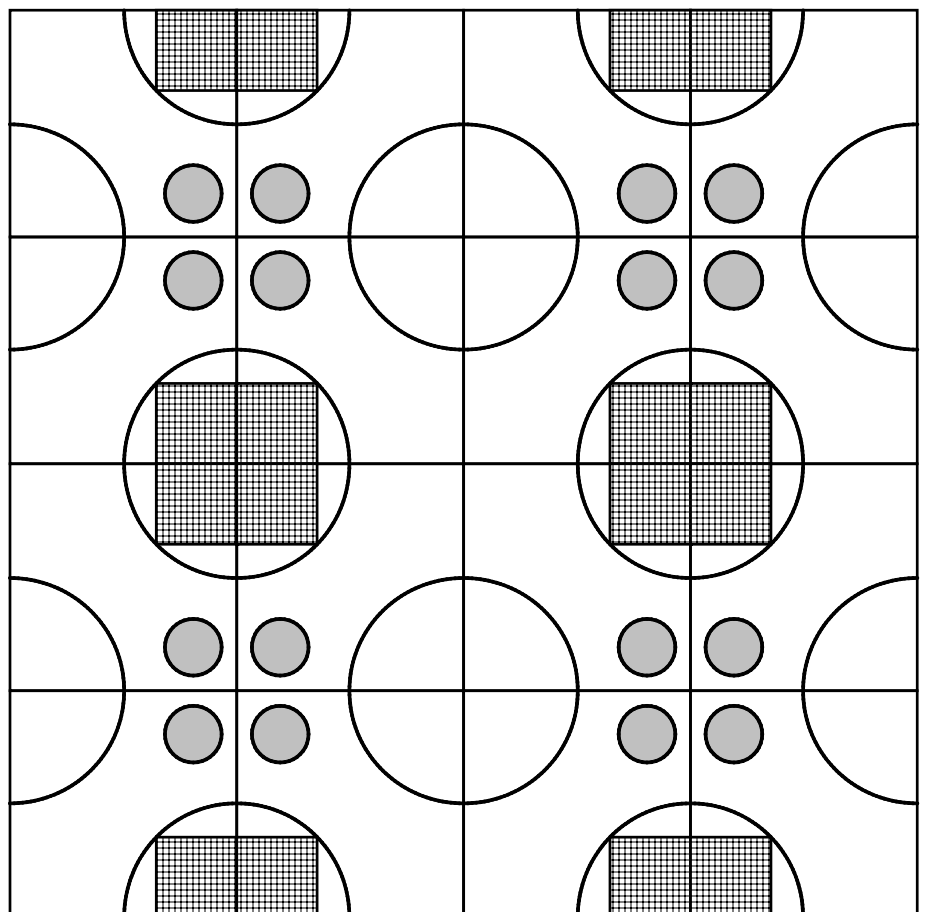

Challenge B

Starting with this tile in the top left

which description explains how the pattern was made.

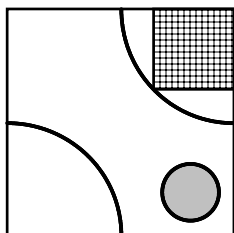

Task 169 ... Wallpaper Patterns

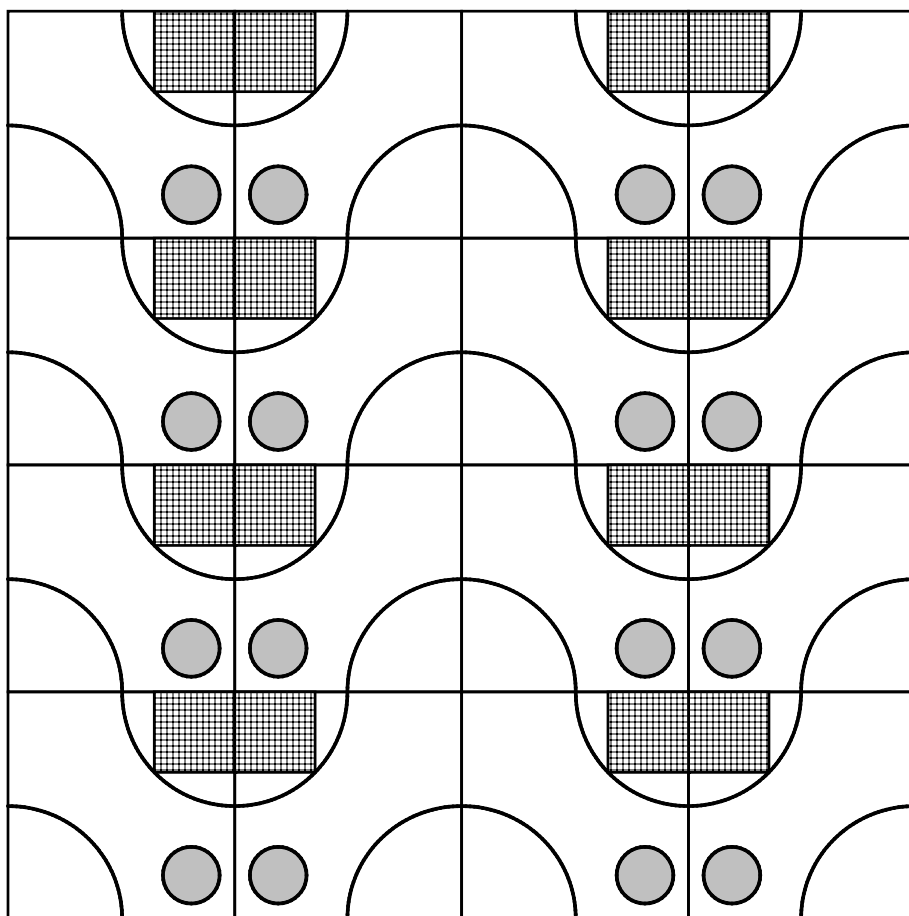

Try the task first, then use the tiles from the task to help you discover how these wallpaper patterns have been created from the first tile in the top left. There are six pages, but you don't have to try them all.

Challenge C

Starting with this tile in the top left

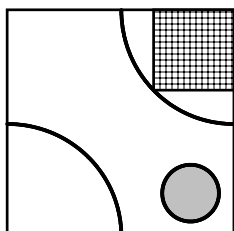

which description explains how the pattern was made.

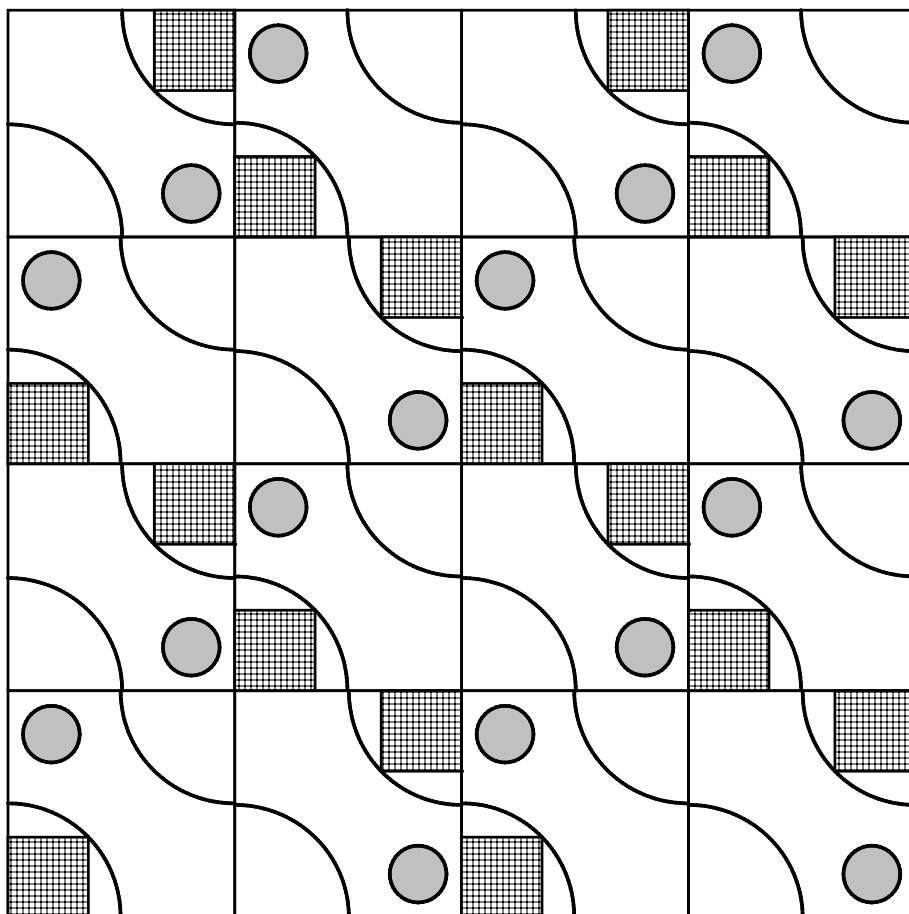

Challenge D

Starting with this tile in the top left

which description explains how the pattern was made.

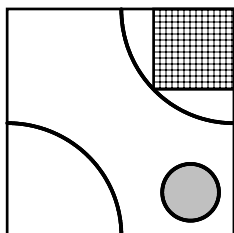

Task 169 ... Wallpaper Patterns

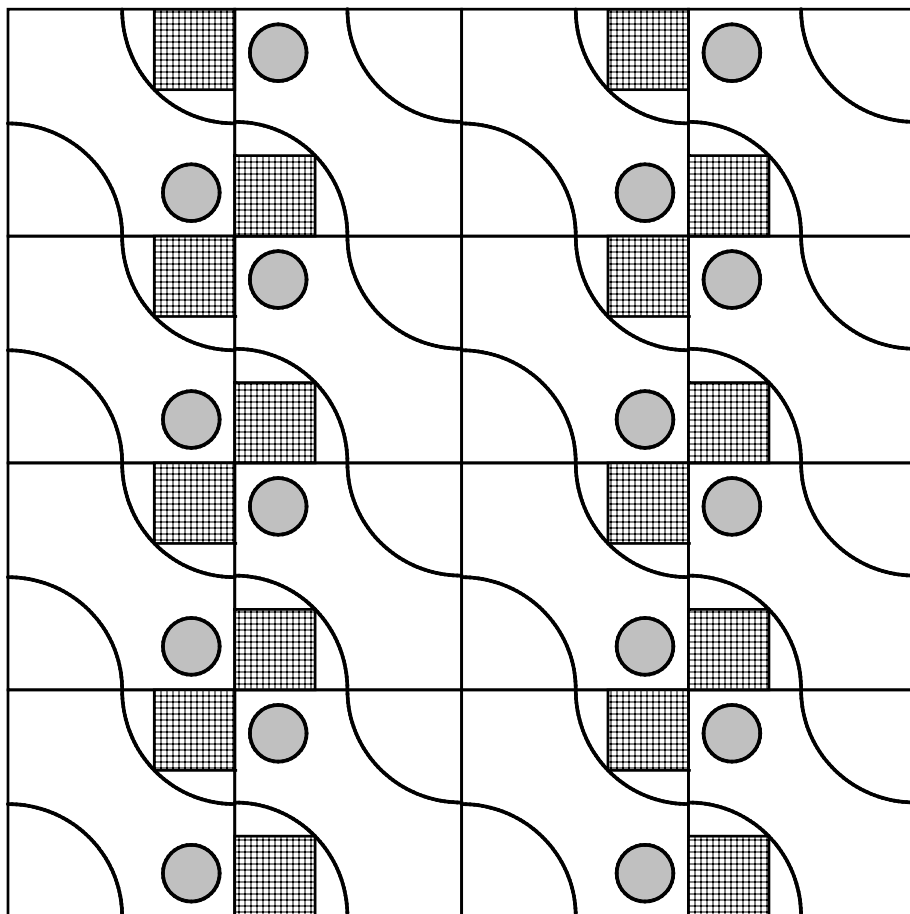

Try the task first, then use the tiles from the task to help you discover how these wallpaper patterns have been created from the first tile in the top left. There are six pages, but you don't have to do them all.

Challenge E

Starting with this tile in the top left

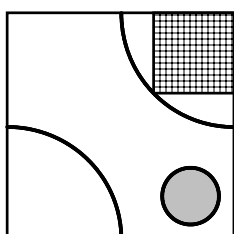

which description explains how the pattern was made.

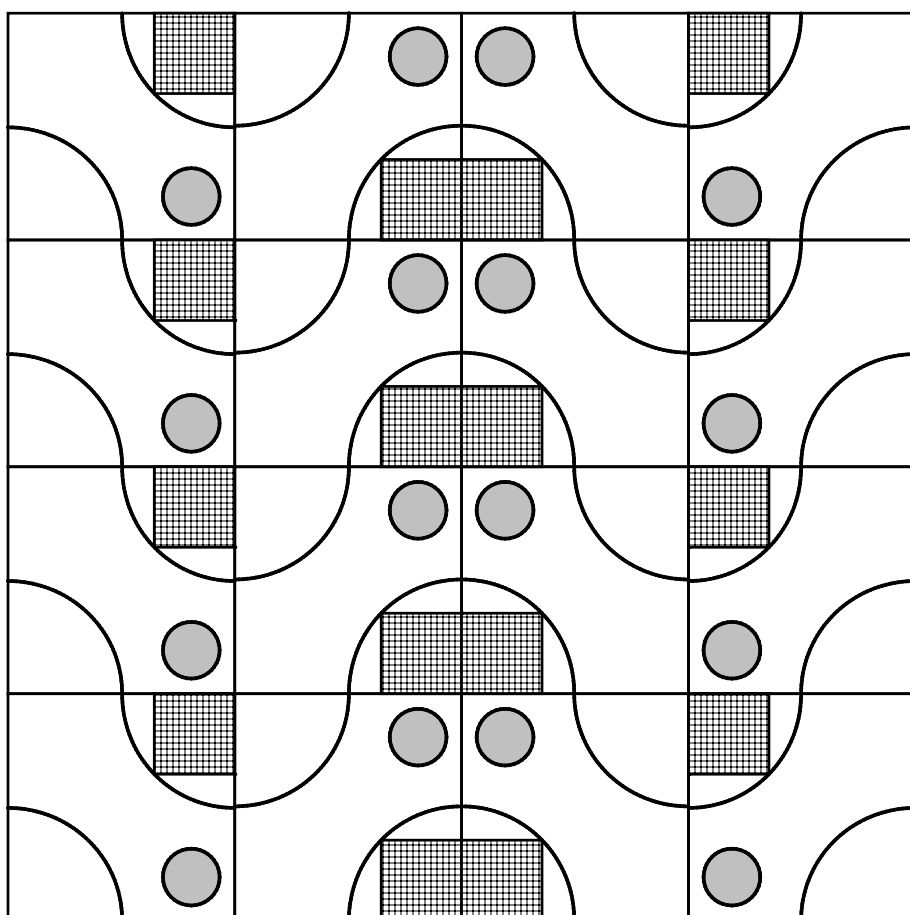

Challenge F

Starting with this tile in the top left

which description explains how the pattern was made.

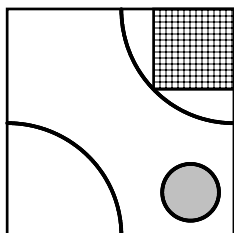

Task 169 ... Wallpaper Patterns

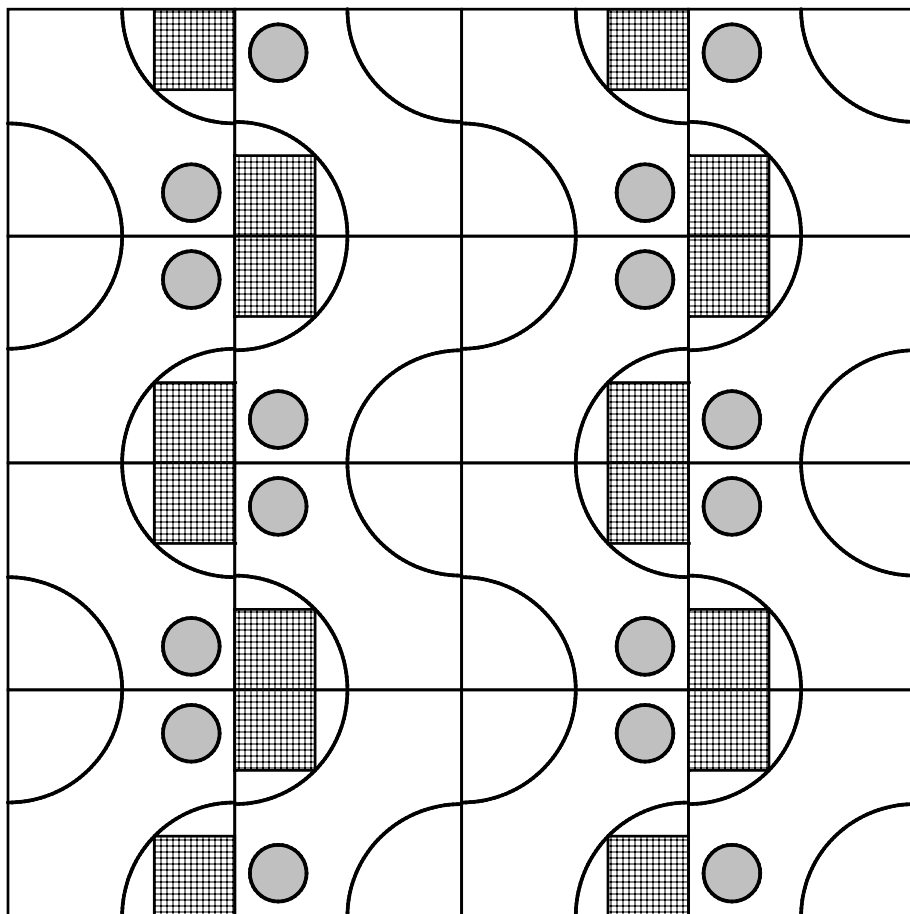

Try the task first, then use the tiles from the task to help you discover how these wallpaper patterns have been created from the first tile in the top left. There are six pages, but you don't have to do them all.

Challenge G

Starting with this tile in the top left

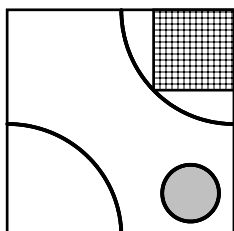

which description explains how the pattern was made.

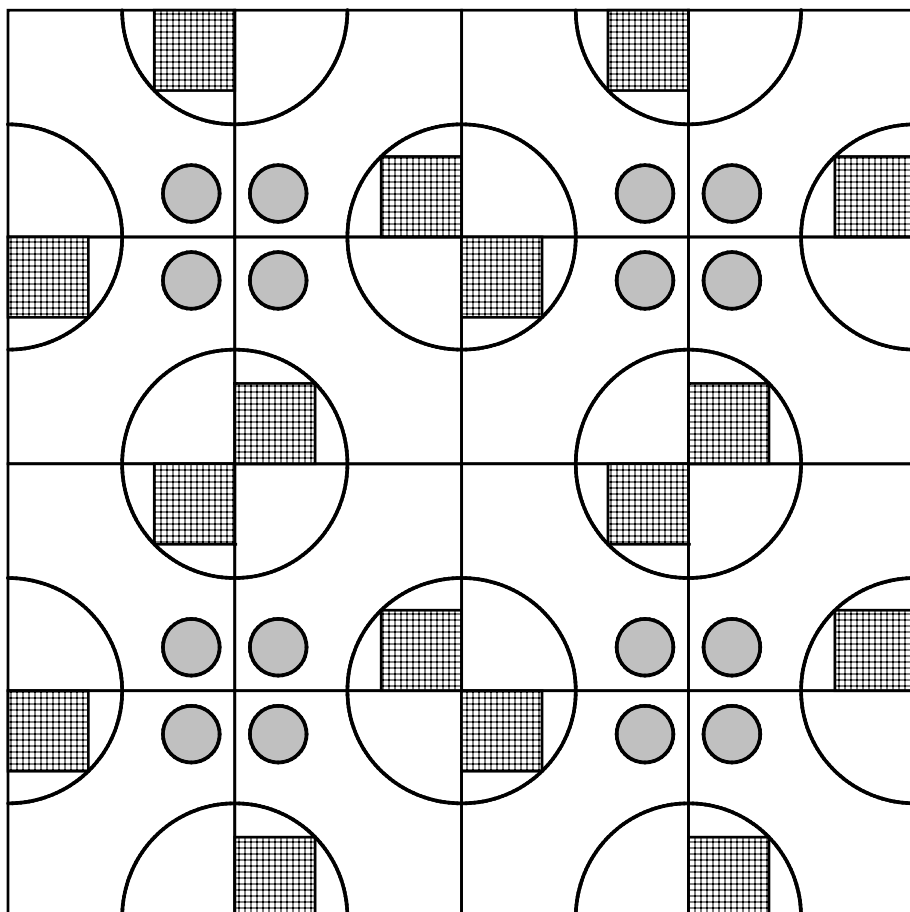

Challenge H

Starting with this tile in the top left

which description explains how the pattern was made.

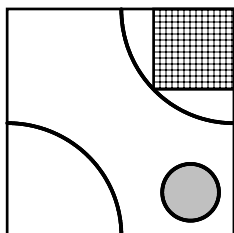

Task 169 ... Wallpaper Patterns

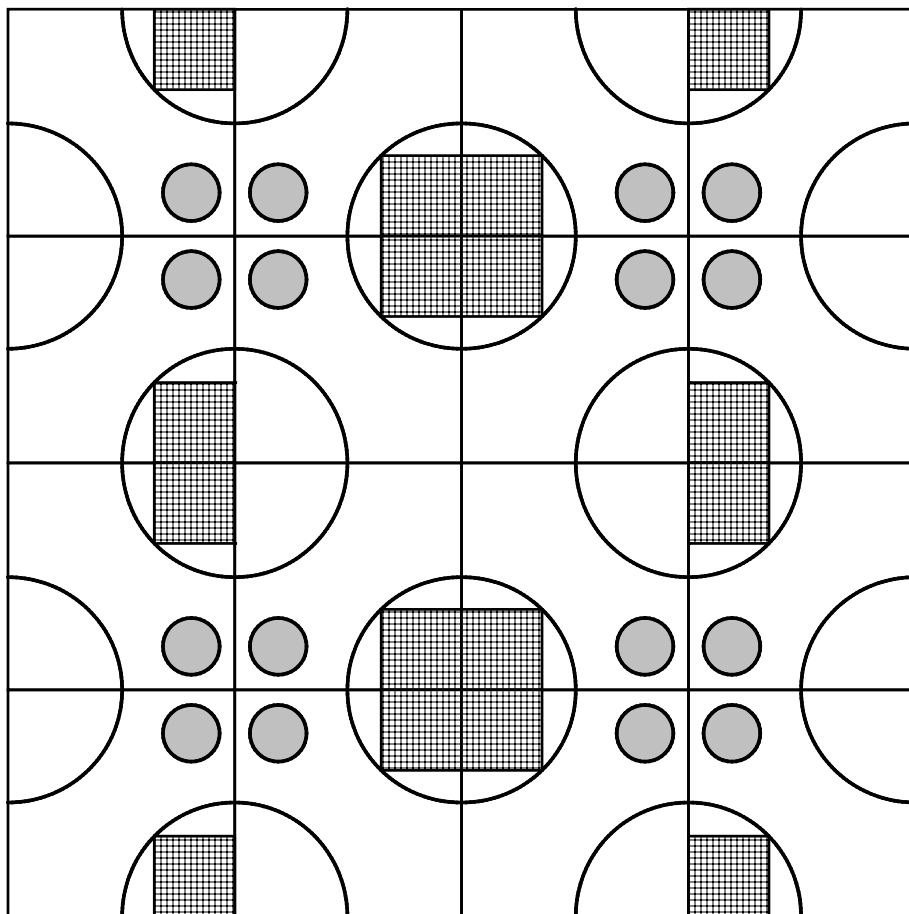

Try the task first, then use the tiles from the task to help you discover how these wallpaper patterns have been created from the first tile in the top left. There are six pages, but you don't have to do them all.

Challenge I

Starting with this tile in the top left

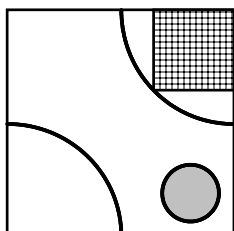

which description explains how the pattern was made.

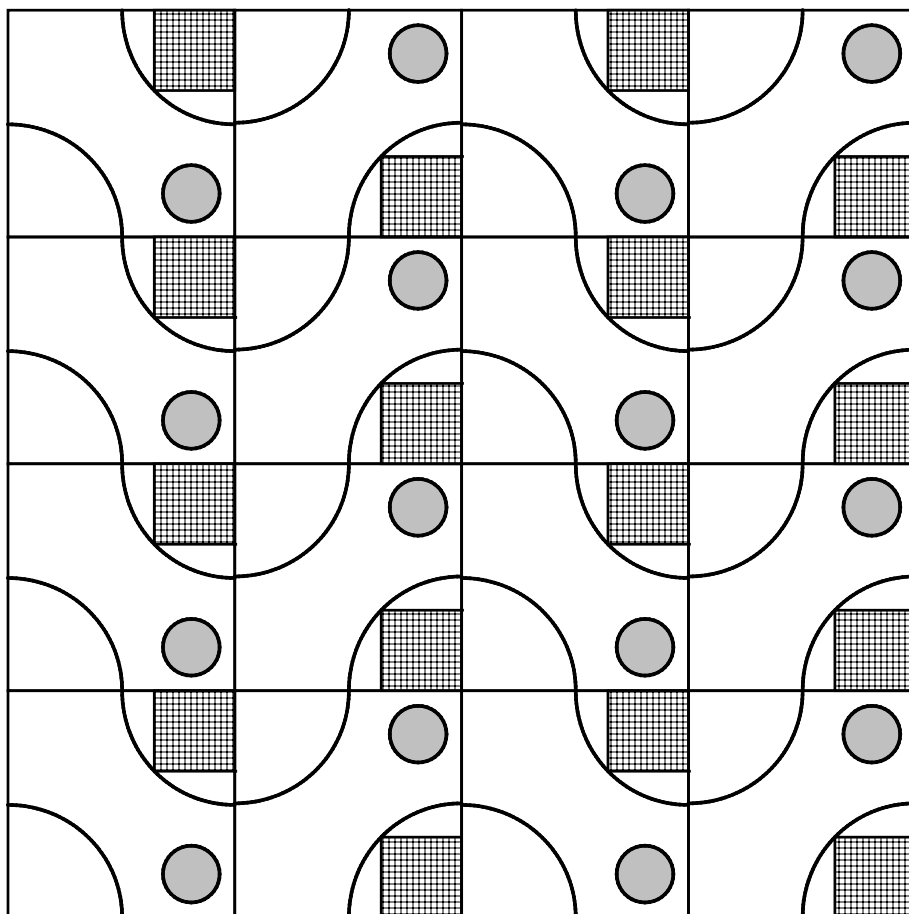

Challenge J

Starting with this tile in the top left

which description explains how the pattern was made.

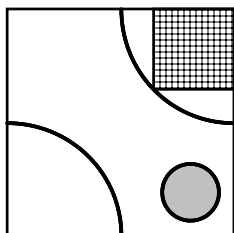

Task 169 ... Wallpaper Patterns

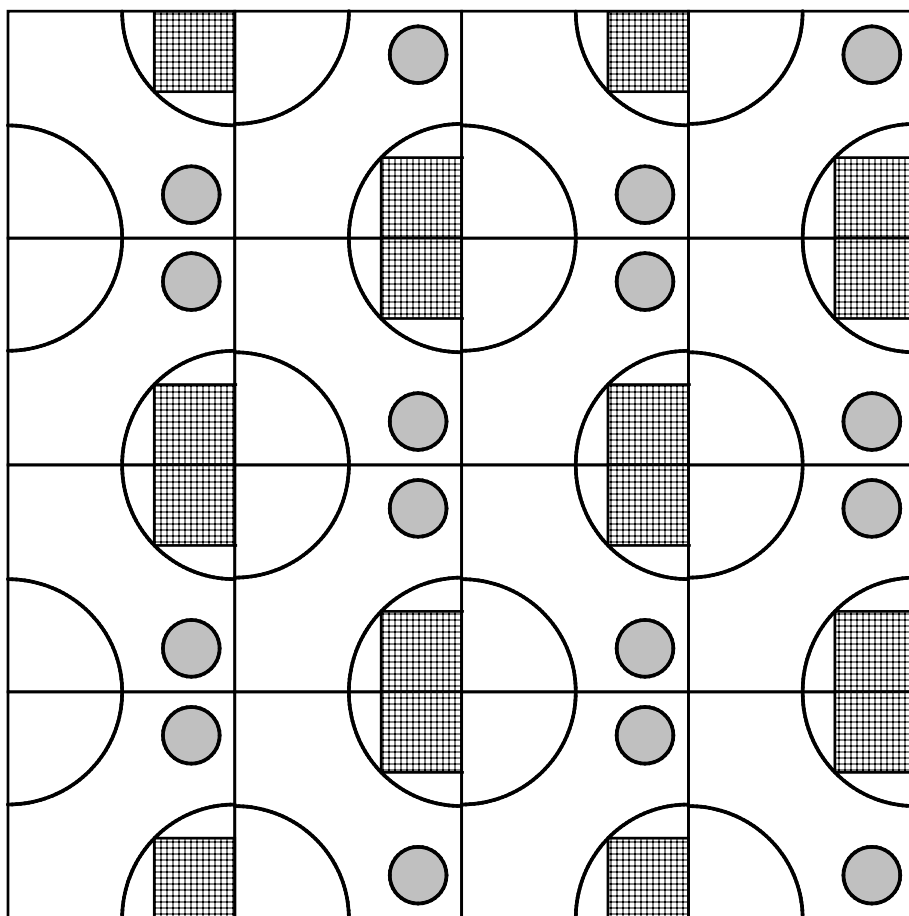

Try the task first, then use the tiles from the task to help you discover how these wallpaper patterns have been created from the first tile in the top left. There are six pages, but you don't have to do them all.

Challenge K

Starting with this tile in the top left

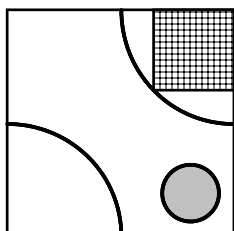

which description explains how the pattern was made.

Challenge L

Starting with this tile in the top left

which description explains how the pattern was made.

